Johnny B Goode

Chuck Berry (written 1958)

Deep [C] down Louisiana [C] close to New Orleans
Way [C] back up in the woods [C] among the evergreens
There [F] stood a log cabin [F] made of earth and wood
Where [C] lived a country boy [C] named Johnny B. Goode
Who never [G] ever learned to read or [F] write so well
But he could [C] play the guitar just [C] like a ringing a bell

Go [C] go.....[C] Go Johnny go go [C] go
[C] Go Johnny go go [F] go.....
[F] Go Johnny go go [C] go.....
[C] Go Johnny go go [G] go..... [F] Johnny B. [C] Goode [G]

He used to [C] carry his guitar [C] in a gunny sack
Go [C] sit beneath the tree [C] by the railroad track
Oh the [F] engineers would see him [F] sitting in the shade
[C] Strumming with the rhythm [C] that the drivers made
[G] People passing by they would [F] stop and say
Oh [C] my that little country boy [C] could play

Go [C] go.....[C] Go Johnny go go [C] go
[C] Go Johnny go go [F] go.....
[F] Go Johnny go go [C] go.....
[C] Go Johnny go go [G] go..... [F] Johnny B. [C] Goode [G]

His mother [C] told him "Someday you will [C] be a man,
And [C] you will be the leader [C] of a big old band".
Many [F] people coming [F] from miles around
[C]To hear you play your music [C] when the sun go down
[G] Maybe someday your name [F] will be in lights
Saying [C] Johnny B. Goode [C] tonight."

Go [C] go.....[C] Go Johnny go go [C] go
[C] Go Johnny go go [F] go.....
[F] Go Johnny go go [C] go.....
[C] Go Johnny go go [G] go..... [F] Johnny B. [C] Goode
